Students wishing to apply to the art education program must arrange and interview with Dr. Amorino (VE-430). The interview must occur in the Freshman year (or first semester of Sophomore year). Admission to the program is limited and competitive. A cum GPA of 3.0 or above is preferred; a cum GPA of 2.75 is the minimum considered.

Students must bring the following to the interview:

- University grade records to date
- Academic writing sample (any paper written for a college course)
- Developing studio portfolio

Note: Students must apply to the Teaching Performance Center (TPC) for all fieldwork; Check TPC deadlines carefully.
