Spanish B.A. SLOs:

1. Compare and contrast varying approaches to literary study and relate specific aspects of a literary subject to the Hispanic literary tradition.
2. Analyze the extent to which the arts, religious beliefs, historical context, cultural perspectives and/or governance has influenced one or more works of Peninsular and Latin American literature and justify conclusions.
3. Evaluate the contributions of Peninsular and Latin American authors within the context of world literary contributions during a similar time period.
4. Demonstrate further development of linguistic and cultural proficiency and proficiency in the methods of literary analysis and exegesis (e.g., relationship between theme, intellectual issues, socio-historical or geo-cultural context).

Program SLOs to be revised in AY 2012-2013 as a part of on-going Spanish/World Languages Program revision
